A Note From Tillie Burgin

Thank you for giving to Mission Arlington. This week we received a letter from Charity Navigator notifying us that Mission Arlington/Mission Metroplex had received a four-star rating (which is their highest rating) for sound fiscal management. We let you know this only to remind all of us we need to be excellent managers of your gifts and donations.

We also wanted to share a short story from a student in the Master's program at a nearby university who called this week. She said, "I was a single mom living in Arlington a few years back. I was having such a difficult time. I just wanted you to know that I'm doing really well now. I also wanted you to know that when I needed you in the most difficult time of my life, you were there for me. Thanks from the bottom of my heart."

You help make this possible. We are so grateful for you and your support.

Thank you dear friends,

Tillie Burgin

A “CHRISTMAS EVE GIFT”

BY CANDY DOWD

This last Christmas Eve my husband, my son, and I decided to go to Mission Arlington/ Mission Metroplex to see if there was anything that still needed to be done before Christmas Day arrived.

The minute we walked into Tillie’s office she said, “I’m glad you’re here. I just called a young mother of three children and told her someone would bring some gifts to her apartment.” Tillie had become aware of this need only the night before.

We shopped for the three children and the mother in the Christmas store, wrapped each gift, and drove them over to the family. The apartment was bare of many of the items our family takes for granted, such as a sofa, chairs, end tables, or beds. The mother, the little girl and a boy greeted us warmly. She said how surprised she was that we would bring these gifts to their apartment on Christmas Eve, but she was grateful.

The children were busy trying to decorate a Christmas tree leaning against the corner with a few pieces of paper and string they had found, and they were excited to have gifts to put under the tree. After leaving the gifts and food that had been sent with us, we prayed together and wished them a Merry Christmas.

We told Tillie about this family’s need for furniture. Immediately Tillie took us down to the furniture warehouse. We found a nice loveseat and matching sofa. After it was loaded into one of the trucks, we took off to make our second delivery. I went up and knocked on the door and the little boy looked out the window. I heard him yell, “Mommy, furniture Santa is here.” The mother was pleased to have the new furniture and remarked that it even matched the carpet. Once again, we wished them a “Merry Christmas” and reminded them of the Mission Arlington church that meets on Sunday mornings just a few apartments down from where they live.

It may sound like the young mother and children received the blessing that morning, but I believe that the greatest blessing fell on the three of us. Our Christmas was a little brighter and a little more joyful because God allowed us to be a part of what He wanted for someone else on Christmas Eve.

The best part is knowing that the mother and children are still being cared for daily by the wonderful people that volunteer and work for Mission Arlington/Mission Metroplex.

A MISSION ARLINGTON CHRISTMAS

25,474 children and youth received gifts at the Store.

A variety of teams from across the Metroplex join in.
