Begin with Prayer

This week we will learn about Elisha. Elisha was also a prophet of God. God told Elijah to anoint Elisha as a prophet. He also told Elijah that Elisha would succeed him. When Elijah found Elisha, he was plowing. Elijah threw his cloak over Elisha. Elisha told Elijah that he wanted to say goodbye to his parents before he followed Elijah. Elijah told him to go and say goodbye.

Elisha went back and killed the oxen, cooked the meat and gave it to the people to eat. Then he followed Elijah. (I Kings 19:15-20) What Elisha did was let the people know that he would be following Elijah. You may remember that Elijah was the prophet who confronted King Ahab, who was a bad king who worshipped idols. (I Kings 18:17-18) Following God and serving Elijah was not going to put Elisha on the King Ahab's list of favorite people. God doesn't want us to have a list of favorite people. He loves everybody. God wants us to do the same. (I John 4:7-8) After Elijah died, God was with Elisha. (II Kings 2:9-14) One day a widow came to Elisha. "She said, 'My husband is dead. You know how much respect he had for the Lord. But he owed money to someone. And now that person is coming to take my two boys away. They will become his slaves.'" (II Kings 4:1 NIrV) Elisha asked the widow what she had in her house. The widow told Elisha that she only had a little bit of olive oil. Elisha instructed her to go and borrow empty jars from her neighbors. He told her to get as many as she could. Next Elisha said that she should go into her house with her sons and close the door. Elisha told her to pour oil into the jar. Elisha told her that as each jar was filled, she should put it to the side. (II Kings 4:2-4) God wants us to help each other. The Bible teaches us that we are to help those in need. (Ephesians 4:8)

The woman went home with her sons. She had them bring the jars to her. She kept pouring oil. When they had filled all the jars, the widow

So they went to tell Elisha that the jars were all full of oil. Elisha told the widow to go and sell all the oil and then pay what she owed. Elisha also told the widow that she and her sons could live on what was left over. (II Kings 4:5-7) Elisha trusted and obeyed God. The widow and her sons trusted and obeyed as well. Because they did, they were able to pay the money they owed and had money left over.

Another time a man brought 20 loaves of bread to Elisha. The man also brought heads of new grain. Elisha told his servant to take the food and feed 100 men. The servant asked how he could do that. The servant knew that it was not enough food. "But Elisha answered, 'Give it to the people to eat. Do it because the Lord says, 'They will eat and have some left over.'" (II Kings 4:42-43) The servant did as Elisha had instructed him. He served the men. The men ate and had food left over. This was exactly what the Lord said would happen. It did! (II Kings 4:45)

Preschool Lesson

One day a widow came to Elisha, the prophet. "She said, 'My husband is dead. You know how much respect he had for the Lord. But he owed money to someone. And now that person is coming to take my two boys away. They will become his slaves." (Il Kings 4:1 NIrV)

Elisha asked the widow what she had in her house. The widow told Elisha that she only had a little bit of olive oil. Elisha told her to go and borrow empty jars from her neighbors. He told her to get as many as she could.

Next Elisha said that she should go into her house with her sons and close the door. Elisha told her to pour oil into the jar. - 3. Ask God to help you trust and obey Him.
- 4. Pray for friends and family members who need to trust God.

Did you know? Preschoolers can learn about trusting God.

Consider this: Make a prayer book for the class. Write prayer requests in the book. Be sure to include the date. Check weekly to see which prayers have been answer and be sure to include the date the prayer was answered. If possible you can ask the children to create their own picture prayer books. Instead of writing their requests they can draw a picture of their request.

Learning Activities

- Memory verse activity Elijah threw his coat over Elisha. Bring a coat. Wear the coat as you tell the verse. Then put the coat on a child who is ready to say the verse.
- Test your memory Bring candy in a jar. As you tell the story ask questions for review. Give the children who raise their hands to answer a piece of candy. At the end of the story be sure to give everyone a piece of candy.
- Taste activity Bring olive oil. Bring something cooked with olive oil for a snack.
- Think about it Elisha killed the oxen that he was using to plow. He cooked the meat and gave it to the people to eat. The oxen were probably the primary tools he need to farm the land. There was no turning back. Talk about serving the Lord with all our heart, soul, mind, and strength.

Elijah anointed Elisha to succeed him. Elijah was pretty much the enemy of King Ahab. Following God was not a popular thing. Talk about serving God when "everybody else" is doing something different.

• Touch activity — Bring toy oxen. Bring toy food and dishes. Pretend you are having a meal like the one Elisha may have prepared.

- Run and play Bring containers of some kind. Play relay races moving the containers from one end to the other.
- Listen As they take time to listen to God, remind the children that God wants us to trust and obey Him.
- Sing Sing "Trust and Obey" or another song related to the story.
