

heart look

(for students)

Mission Arlington/Mission Metroplex
Summer Curriculum—www.missionarlington.org
No part of this curriculum may be republished without permission. Please feel free to copy for classroom use.

Connect with God and His world around you with heart look.

Good News Feed See what God's Word says about anything you're into.

Good News Search Find more of what you are looking for in God's Word.

Talkline Tell your story—from when you met Jesus up to what you're doing now.

Messages Write a private message to God about
What you've learned today.

Sign up for

Its free and always will be.

David

A man after God's own heart

Mission Arlington / Mission Metroplex Summer Curriculum

David Is Going to Be King

1 Samuel 16:1-13, 1 Samuel 17:34-35 (1 Samuel 8, 13)

1. Why did God begin looking for a new king? _____
2. Who did God choose to replace King Saul? _____
3. Why did God choose David? _____
4. What did you learn about David? _____

5. Rewrite the memory verse: _____

6. Think about the memory verse and read 2 Chronicles 16:9. What is God saying to you?

YEAR

Tell your story—from when you met Jesus up to what you're doing now. This week, let's start with how you met Jesus and when you decided to follow Him.

YEAR

Maybe you have just realized that you don't have a story of your own. If so, read the following verses and use the space above to write out what you think when you read them. Then, talk to one of your leaders if you have any questions.

Romans 3:23, Romans 6:23, Romans 5:8, Romans 10:9-13

New Message

To: GOD

Write a message to God. Think about what you have learned and talk to God about any changes that need to be made in your heart and with your thoughts.

Send