

heart look

(for students)

Mission Arlington/Mission Metroplex
Summer Curriculum—www.missionarlington.org
No part of this curriculum may be republished without permission. Please feel free to copy for classroom use.

Connect with God and His world around you with heart look.

Good News Feed See what God's Word says about anything you're into.

Good News Search Find more of what you are looking for in God's Word.

Talkline Tell your story—from when you met Jesus up to what you're doing now.

Messages Write a private message to God about What you've learned today.

Sign up for

Its free and always will be.

David

A man after God's own heart

Mission Arlington / Mission Metroplex Summer Curriculum

David Has Opportunity to Kill the King

1 Samuel 24, 26; Psalm 57, 108

1. Why was David running for his life? _____
2. What did David have the opportunity to do? _____
3. Why didn't David kill King Saul? _____
4. Rewrite the memory verse: _____

5. Think about the memory verse and this week's lesson. What is God saying to you?

YEAR

Tell your story—from when you met Jesus up to what you're doing now. This week, continue to add to your story. Add what God has been doing in your life since you met Jesus. Begin sharing your story with others.

YEAR

Maybe you have just realized that you don't have a story of your own. If so, read the following verses and use the space above to write out what you think when you read them. Then, talk to one of your leaders if you have any questions.

Romans 3:23, Romans 6:23, Romans 5:8, Romans 10:9-13

New Message

To: GOD

Read through the featured Psalms this week and write a message to God. Think about what you have learned and talk to God about any changes that need to be made in your heart and with your thoughts. (Read Psalm 19:14.)

Send